Just a leisurely stroll from South Bank and West End's most popular attractions, this extra large one bedroom apartment offers a brilliant low-maintenance lifestyle. Gala Apartments is a high quality boutique style complex comprising of only 26 apartments. An unmatched location for first time buyers, busy professionals, a pied-a-terre for travelling business people, or even downsizers seeking a diverse urban existence (within an intimate, non-high-rise building), this is a real gem. Likewise, investors can take advantage of Brisbane's record low vacancy rates and the 2032 Olympic Games, with the apartment suitable for either the long-term rental market or popular Airbnb platform. Upon entering, you'll be greeted by the white featured kitchen flowing into the spacious carpeted open-plan living and dining areas. Connected seamlessly by the large glass sliding doors to the covered 18m² balcony which provides an ideal space for outdoor entertaining and relaxing. The roomy master bedroom has built in cupboards, direct balcony access to allow the natural light to stream in. The sizeable bathroom offers a combined shower and bath. Additional features include secure parking for one car, air-conditioning in both the lounge and bedroom. A rooftop terrace perfect for enjoying Queensland's beautiful weather. Five visitors carparks. Residence 8 also comes with a storage bay. For those who prefer to dine out, the multitude of acclaimed restaurants, cafes, and bars nearby are sure to impress. Located just metres from fashionable Fish Lane, this outstanding residence is near QPAC, GOMA, Streets Beach, and the Queensland Museum. The Montague Markets and West Village precincts are a stone's throw away, as are scenic river walks and the South Bank Ferry Terminal. The South Brisbane bus and train stations, city cats are easily accessible from this address as well. Metro Woolworths is located around the Corner. This is inner city living at its best.
