Suburb Snapshot The District of Gungahlin is one of the original eighteen districts of the Australian Capital Territory used in land administration. The district is subdivided into divisions (suburbs), sections and blocks. Gungahlin is an Aboriginal word meaning either "white man's house" or "little rocky hill". Within the district is Canberra's northernmost town centre that is situated 10 kilometres (6.2 miles) north of Canberra city centre. The town centre is one of five satellites of Canberra, seated in Woden, Tuggeranong, Weston Creek and Belconnen. The traditional custodians of the district are the indigenous people of the Ngunnawal tribe.
