Brand New Two Bedroom With Secure Parking in Sydney's Most Iconic Building

Sirius is one of Sydney's most famous buildings; layered into the historic and cultural heart of The Rocks. Beautifully reimagined for a modern sensibility, with a level of luxury its harbourfront address deserves.

Designed as a home, not an apartment, this 2 bed 2 bath residence boasts 58sqm of external area and 78sqm of internal living space including a master bedroom with ensuite and its very own courtyard. Enjoy your own private courtyard's both East and West facing, along with a private residents only fully-equipped gym, spa, open-air swimming pool and sun deck.

The first Australian project for Kelly Hoppen Interiors, London-based and internationally renowned, Hoppen distils her signature 'East Meets West' style invoking an atmosphere of luxurious ease. Pared back. Polished. Chic. All framed by floor-to-ceiling windows on all sides, filling the space with daylight and harbour breezes.
