When it comes to strong followings, these river-facing apartments always draw a crowd. Nestled within a contemporary complex, this exceptional ground floor apartment offers an unparalleled lifestyle defined by luxury, space, and breathtaking river views. Set against a backdrop of parkland tranquility, a rushing river and the playful sounds from nature, this modern apartment offers the perfect blend of indoor-outdoor living. Tightly held and always in high demand, peacefulness and serenity are just a couple of the unique features of this beautiful home:

- A floorplan that maximises the north-facing river aspect from most rooms throughout
- Large sliding doors available in both the bedroom and living room, making entertaining easy with a seamless flow from indoor to outdoor (and vice versa)
- A generously proportioned bathroom is accessed from the living room and comes complete with concealed laundry
- Separate gourmet stone-bench kitchen, complete with gas cooktop and Bosch oven and dishwasher, stands ready to cater to culinary adventures
- An expansive L-shaped terrace offering an ideal setting for entertaining while overlooking the river
- Floor-to-ceiling windows are bathed in northern sunlight
- Split-system heating and cooling, timber floors throughout with plush carpet in the bedroom, security entry and lift access to the lower-level parking space and storage cage
- An abundance of local walking and riding tracks that cater to all levels of fitness fanatics.
