Looking for your own piece of land to camp and enjoy nature - even perhaps search for a gold nugget or more. Well, this block could have just what you are looking for. So explore the property and see if it is what you dream of. There are no services, no permits, and it is a natural ambience. Regarding any future plans, you will need to contact the local shire - but explore the land first, connect, and fall in love with the Pyrenees and the fresh air.
