Escape to your very own private retreat nestled within 77.8 acres of pristine bushland. This breathtaking block of land offers a rare opportunity to immerse yourself in nature's wonder, surrounded by abundant birdlife and captivating wildlife at every turn. As you wander around you'll hear the creek that meanders through the property and be enchanted by the harmonious symphony of nature's melodies. Picture yourself waking up to the gentle chirping of birds, a chorus that serenades your mornings and fills your days with tranquility. A well-constructed driveway leads you to a large shed with a concrete floor, providing endless possibilities for your creative pursuits or storage needs. With power readily available (although not connected), and a bore, you have the convenience to bring your visions to life, whether it's building your dream quiet space or transforming it into a workshop. Discover the allure of the great outdoors with walking tracks throughout the property, inviting you to explore and soak in the beauty of the natural surroundings. Lose yourself in the serene ambiance as you immerse yourself in the sights, sounds, and scents of the bushland. This remarkable block of land presents an opportunity to create your own sanctuary, a haven away from the bustle of everyday life. Embrace the peace and seclusion that this picturesque property offers, providing a canvas for you to design your ideal lifestyle. Don't miss out on this chance to secure your very own piece of paradise. It's time to escape, unwind, and reconnect with the earth at this extraordinary retreat.
