JUST LISTED

Welcome to 1/5 Shaft Street, where effortless living meets convenience in the heart of Edmonton. This standalone villa presents an ideal opportunity for first home buyers, retirees, or savvy investors seeking a low-maintenance lifestyle. Boasting two bedrooms and one bathroom, this charming villa offers a cozy retreat for those looking to downsize without compromising on comfort. The fully fenced yard provides privacy and security, creating a serene oasis for relaxation and outdoor enjoyment. Parking is a breeze with a lockable garage and an additional carport, ensuring ample space for your vehicles and storage needs. The convenience of having both covered and secure parking adds an extra layer of comfort to everyday living. What sets this property apart is the absence of a body corporate. Here, owners take pride in maintaining their own villas, ensuring a sense of community while retaining control over maintenance and gardening. It's a hassle-free arrangement that promotes independence and autonomy. Situated between the bustling Edmonton township and the reputable Mackillip School, residents enjoy easy access to essential amenities and quality education. Whether it's shopping, dining, or leisure activities, everything you need is just a stone's throw away. Whether you're starting your homeownership journey, seeking a peaceful retirement retreat, or expanding your investment portfolio, 1/5 Shaft Street offers the perfect blend of comfort, convenience, and affordability.
