Located Epping's premier street and showcasing a magnificent build, welcome to number 28A Willoughby Street, a striking six-bedroom architectural masterpiece. The pinnacle of luxury living. Holding almost 500 sqm (approx.) land, this stunning 6 bedroom family haven uncompromising on quality with every luxury you'll ever need. The soaring double-height entry, timber staircase, and huge glass windows continue that dramatic play on scale, but our favourite space has to be the main open plan living area. Again, ceilings soar to 3metres in this inspiring living zone and glass doors open to merge indoors to out, it reflects 'being the outside garden to inside living space' concept. The extra large alfresco space is protected to use all year round. There's plenty of sun-drenched lawn for children to play on, and flanked by landscaping, water fountain feature the owners have truly considered every detail. Entertainers will absolutely love this gourmet kitchen, complete with quality Miele appliances and sleek stone benchtops. It's a seamless contemporary design, and the butler's pantry promises even more storage. The accommodation of five generous bedrooms is very well executed. All have built-in robes, Two have luxury ensuites, and two boast expansive walk-in robes. The bedroom downstairs is perfect for guests or the extended family and the sixth bedroom can be used as home office. There's internal access to garage and your assured every comfort with ducted zoned air conditioning, and keyless entry, alarm security. From this blissfully peaceful location, you're moments away from the train station, shops, and cafes, not to mention being surrounded by parks and top ranking schools. What a stunning property the build quality makes its undoubtedly one of the area's most impressive homes and if lucky your enough it could be all yours.
