A rare opportunity awaits to acquire a stunning ground floor residence that presents more like a delightful easy care home than an apartment. Enjoying a level access setting in the 2018 built 'The Heysen', it's a vision in light, style and contemporary design excellence. Beautiful open plan living zones are adorned in oak and include a luxury Miele appointed kitchen. Floor to ceiling glass sliders retract to the impressive decked courtyard that is substantial, private and a superb space for entertaining or relaxing. The two bedrooms are well separated with the master enjoying an ensuite. It would be hard to find another apartment as engaging as this one which benefits from an ultra-convenient setting steps to the bus, village and rail and within the Wahroonga Public catchment.
