The Only Brand-New House in Camira Awaits!

Escape to your own oasis on this rare 4029m<sup>2</sup> acreage land, tucked away from the street for ultimate privacy. Enjoy a scenic private driveway, gated entrance with a brand new grand wrought iron gate for superior security, and ample parking space. Gated community, however, Torrens Title land. Choose from multiple construction options; • Looking for land to build your dream home with your chosen builder? Contact for more information. • We have taken the liberty of alleviating the work of finding a builder, and seeking build costs with a superior builder. This partnership allows the time and stress of meeting with builders eliminated, and building costs being awarded to yourself at a surprisingly low cost as a benefit of purchasing such a beautiful lot of land. Contact for more information. • Not looking to build a large family home? Why not a tiny home to house you, and potential to be used as a granny flat at a later date?

Perfect for First Home Owners, receive $30,000 from the QLD Government if you choose to build a tiny home on this lot of land! Contact for more information. Contact us today to seize this extraordinary opportunity! Please note: Render images provided in this post do not reflect the end product that will be achieved on completion of build. These have been added to provide the buyer with an example of what they may achieve depending on the decision they make on the land.
