This home is full of charm and superbly located only moments from the action. You will find yourself within walking distance to High Street and the Barwon River and just a short drive to the Geelong CBD and surf coast. Entering the home you will be greeted by the spacious, open plan meals and living area, filled with so much natural light and a reverse cycle air conditioner. The kitchen is well equipped with quality appliances including gas appliances, dishwasher and ample storage space. Completing the home is two spacious bedrooms, the master complete with a built in robe. All of which are serviced well by the stylish quaint bathroom. Outside you will enjoy your time on the entertaining deck at the front that overlooks a spacious and inviting grassed area with a beautiful feature tree. The backyard offers a second grassed area leading into the single garage.
