Immersed in leafy tranquillity directly bordering an established green belt, this four-bedroom, two-bathroom haven on a 624sqm (approx.) allotment seamlessly integrates country style allure with suburban convenience to offer an exceptional setting for family life. Spanning a well-proportioned single level layout with interiors radiating elegance via soaring ceilings, decorative cornices, and bay windows, the home offers generous spaces for every occasion and fabulous ways to lap up the outdoors. The hub of the home lies in its central timber kitchen that is well equipped to feed the masses, as large windows overlooking the outdoor entertaining area ensure you stay connected with family activities. Formal and casual living zones provide room for parents and children to spread out, including a north-facing sitting room that basks in all-day sunshine. The generous communal areas continue outdoors with an undercover deck providing plenty of space for alfresco dining overlooking the surrounding leafy landscape. The privately zoned main bedroom is a perfect haven to unwind, complete with large built-in robes, double vanity ensuite and striking bay window. Two more bedrooms with built-in robes are nestled in their own wing alongside the family bathroom, while a fourth robed bedrooms offers outstanding versatility to function as a home office if required. Located for peace and privacy at the top of a no-through road, this family-friendly package is completed with ducted heating and evaporative cooling, plus a double lock-up garage with practical pull-through access. In a community-minded neighbourhood on the doorstep of a nature reserve, this home strikes the perfect balance between tranquillity and convenience, just a short walk or bike ride to the Marketplace shopping centre, local schools, parks, and medical and sporting facilities.
