This property comes with plenty of advantages, including its close proximity to the M7 motorway which offers you access to strategic employment centers, airports, shopping and education Hubs. Other advantages include a sumptuous kitchen with an advantageous semi-commercial gas cooktop and muscled-up rangehood. You're always in the driver's seat with plenty of off-street parking. Three bedrooms and a study offer ample sleeping space and the lounge room has plenty of practical living space. The greatest advantage of all is the location and position of this property. A 600m² corner block which offers the discerning buyers plenty of options for the future. As noted, the advantages are endless including solar, natural gas, floorboards, tiles, built-ins, Split system AC, enclosed sunroom and extra large shed/garage. With picture postcard street appeal, this property won't last long. Take advantage of this rare opportunity and make sure you view this property at your earliest convenience.
