Nestled amongst stunning rainforest scenery only 2km away from the Village Hub is this super cute and welcoming Kuranda home. With character features and timber highlights throughout, this solid block, split level property offers two very spacious bedrooms and open plan living/ kitchen/ dining zones on its first floor level. Whilst downstairs showcases a massive undercover area – that could be used as a games room, tinkering shed, or mega storage space with the added benefit of an extra enclosed room that you can use for whatever your heart desires! With an inviting front patio and a stunning rear/ side wrap around timber verandah, there are a multitude of spaces to relax and enjoy the rainforest bliss, and with rear access and a two street frontage, there is plenty of space for vehicle parking and plenty of potential to further enhance the home and the property. Neat as a pin, this entrance price point home is the PERFECT way to affordably buy into a very fast paced moving property market.
