This great four-bedroom, two-bathroom brick home is located in the convenient location of Raymond Terrace, within 25 minutes' drive to Maitland and 35 minutes' drive to Newcastle. Situated in a lovely tree-lined street, the location is quiet and ideally located close to schools and shops. With two large living spaces, and a functional kitchen space, this home is perfect for a family. There are three bedrooms located along the hallway and include built-in robes, with the main bedroom at the other end of the home offering a walk-in robe and ensuite. At the rear there is a great outdoor sun-drenched alfresco area off the kitchen and living area that adds to the many features of this lovely home. A double garage is attached to the home and has remote control access. Externally the yard at the rear has room for kids to run, and there is side access to the yard if required.
