Living in Nature: Embracing the Wild Life

Nestled within the idyllic settings of Mirboo North in Victoria, this delightful three-bedroom house offers a quintessential lifestyle opportunity for those yearning for a serene country change. Boasting an expansive 2.4 acres of land, this residence is the epitome of rural charm combined with modern comforts, tailored for a family or couple seeking tranquility and community spirit.

Upon entering, you're greeted by a spacious living area, crowned with a stunning cathedral ceiling that enhances the sense of space and light. The presence of three split systems ensures the climate is controlled for comfort all year round, while a cozy wood heater adds a touch of rustic warmth. Additionally, a secondary wood heater can be found in the oversized two-car garage, perfect for doubling as a workshop or creative space.

The interior is complemented by a mezzanine, offering ample storage solutions, and the wrap-around verandah invites leisurely afternoons soaking in the peaceful surrounds. Outside, the gazebo overlooks mature native trees - an ideal spot for contemplation or entertaining. For the green-thumbed, raised garden beds await your horticultural flair, supplemented by two large woodsheds and a low maintenance garden.

Parking is abundant with space for up to four vehicles, ensuring guests are always welcome. The convenience of this location is unmatched, being a stone's throw from the local swimming pool, reputable schools, and the main street, yet situated in a quiet locale.

Embrace a lifestyle where community ties are strong, and the living is easy. Join the close-knit fabric of Mirboo North, where this house is not just a dwelling but a home waiting to be filled with new memories.
