Functionally designed with a modern pallet, this low-set brick home is set on a 902m² block in a private cul-de-sac. Incorporating spacious living, media room, four bedrooms, activity room, and two bathrooms, this home has all the quality features to live comfortably. Boasting four bedrooms, each with built-in storage and ceiling fans, the master bedroom is privately located at the front of the house and includes a good-sized ensuite. Featuring dark modern tones, the fully equipped kitchen incorporates the 5-burner gas oven, stainless rangehood, double door pantry, grey benchtops and breakfast bar flowing through to the dining and open plan living area. Designed with privacy sliding doors, the media room is a good size and will host a large lounge suit. Located at the back of the home, are the three guest bedrooms and activity room with access to the backyard. Outdoors includes a spacious grass backyard with the potential to build a shed, an undercover patio, rainwater storage and a 6.6kw solar system.
