Discover this charming three-bedroom home that combines modern comfort with thoughtful design. Nestled in the peaceful neighborhood of the Park Central Estate, this residence offers a welcoming retreat for families and professionals alike. The heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen and living area, boasting contemporary finishes including a spacious island bench, stainless steel appliances and a gas cooktop. This versatile space is perfect for both everyday living and entertaining guests. The master bedroom features a private ensuite and walk-in robe, while the two additional bedrooms are equipped with built-in robes, providing ample storage space. Outside, the fully fenced yard provides a secure area for children to play or for hosting outdoor gatherings. Additional highlights include ducted heating, split system cooling, interior roller blinds, modern wooden floating floors and a double lock-up garage with internal access for convenience. Impeccably maintained and presented, this home is ready for you to move in and enjoy everything it and its surroundings have to offer.
