Fresh and funky surfside escape, Hale Nula, Hawaiian for 'Surf House' offers beachy chic and is super stylish in its own unique way. Just one street back from popular Surfers Beach in SA's premiere holiday hotspot of Middleton, enjoy a weekend family retreat just metres from the surf without the $1M+ price tag. Step on into the light-filled open lounge / dine area with cosy combustion heater & S/S RCAC then through to the spacious, well-equipped kitchen including gas cooktop, wall oven, large island bench + extensive bench & cupboard space. The home offers 3 bedrooms, master with WI Robe and private ensuite while the 2nd & 3rd bedrooms are serviced by the sparkling main bathroom. Fully fenced and easy-care rear yard with lawns, paved outdoor area for a fire pit and minimalistic gardens, perfect for kids & pets to play or entertain visiting friends and family. A side storage space is handy for surfboards and other holiday toys. Positioned on a generous corner allotment of approx. 918m² with ample off-street parking for plenty of visitors. A cute beachside retreat in a sensational location just an easy stroll to the surf. You can also enjoy the cafes, bakery and Tavern of Middleton's coastal township.
