As you enter this stunning property you are met with a striking façade that indicates the quality of the construction from local builders Colmac Homes. A light drenched layout with raked ceilings along with a stunning décor that compliments the fixtures and fittings of the home. A perfect floorplan for a family or an empty nester that enjoys the benefit of four bedrooms, with blank canvas for the perfect shedding for your specific needs such as the caravan or boat. The open plan of the home is so inviting for entertaining with the lovely kitchen including a walk in pantry, quality Ariston appliances and large island bench, that leads to undercover entertaining area. There are two internal living zones with the main family room and an adjoining rumpus or media room. The master bedroom has a stunning ensuite with a unique design and stylish modern fixtures along with the walk in robe. As with all good layouts the remaining bedrooms have built in robes and are serviced by the quality bathroom, once again unique in it's design with the added benefit of a study nook for the kids homework or an ideal space to run the family business. A double garage for off street parking and direct entry into the home completes seamless flow of this wonderful layout. This property provides an opportunity to purchase a quality built home in Maffra newest residential area, quickly gaining a reputation for attractive modern family living.
