Welcome to "Casa Mira Mare" which means house that overlooks the sea has become available for the first time and in a position that will not come up often, if you are looking for that something special to be nearly beach front with an easy walk down to some exclusive beach walks, then you really need to come and inspect this magnificent property and something you would find on the Mediterranean coastline, call today for a private inspection...The pure quality of this architecturally and structured engineered design home which won a building award in 2000 for Central Queensland. The 360 degree views of the 17 islands of the Keppel's, out to the hinterland, a home like this only comes along usually once in a lifetime, all the bedrooms have magnificent views. Quality with the imported from Japan, stainless steel roof and gutters, to the rendered block, steel and concrete construction to handle any cyclone and fitted with tinted toughened glass windows throughout the home and all custom built. The open plan living with the imported Italian glazed terracotta tiles, to the beautiful shutters throughout the home, the internal stairs made from quila handcrafted with no nails, screws or bolts, leading up to the air-conditioned bedrooms and the main bedroom having a huge walk in robe and the ensuite with double vanity and double shower. The beautiful kitchen fitted with stainless steel and glass splash backs and a Franke double sink and insinkerator, with a self cleaning oven and quality Hansgrohe tap work throughout, opens into the magnificent lounge area with a gas fireplace to enjoy a wine while looking out to the beautiful ocean, this all opens out to the large internal courtyard and covered loggia with built in seating and custom cushions, internal gardens and looking over the fully tiled salt water infinity pool which has been custom built. The internal courtyard and entry is Himalayan sandstone. Book your private inspection of this unique quality home, selling well below what you could replace with the same fittings and has the million dollar views, once it's gone it can not be replaced, offered for the very first time to the market, call today...
