A Wonder by the Wetlands

Step inside this immaculately presented home and feel a sense of tranquillity and relaxation from beginning to end. Whether you're here to entertain or put your feet up to unwind, this has you covered. The living room is free flowing and is the epitome of open plan as it flows through to a stunning feature filled kitchen, which opens out to the dining which has direct access to a private courtyard and the double lock up garage. Completing the picture is a master bedroom with a balcony that overlooks the wetlands plus a 2nd bedroom with study nook, a central bathroom and European laundry. This is truly a home that you can enjoy for many more years!

Downlights, heating, sparkling tiles throughout the ground floor... this is just the tip of the iceberg for extras. How about a superb kitchen with an amazing central island bench, not to mention a dishwasher, 900mm oven and a 5-burner stove – this is ready for the chef of the home to whip up any sized meal! The living room has views of the wetlands, while the dining, powder room and laundry are tucked at the rear.

Upstairs is a haven where you can relax while watching the world go by from the balcony in the master bedroom. It also boasts built in robes and has access to the central bathroom with a large shower while the 2nd bedroom also has BIRs and a study nook. Entertain until your heart's content in the courtyard and if you need more room, guests can head inside or into the lock-up garage – it's all ready to go!

The location is simple second to none with the new Keysborough area growing by the minute, there are bus stops nearby, Parkmore Shopping Centre is a few minutes away plus you can easily jump onto Eastlink or the bypass to make your way around town. There's never been a better opportunity to enjoy this extra special home in such a premium locale. For the relaxed lifestyle ahead, call me today!
