Nestled in the thriving Clyde North community, this four-bedroom family home is the epitome of modern living, catering perfectly to the needs of young families or savvy investors. The property showcases a neatly maintained, modern façade, positioned flawlessly on a corner block to provide both functionality and aesthetic appeal. A sense of spaciousness envelops the home with its generous entry and hallway, unveiling an expansive home office space or the versatility of a spacious fifth bedroom. The beautifully maintained kitchen takes centre stage, featuring a quality stone island benchtop and sleek stainless-steel appliances. Embracing the essence of open plan living, a dining area and family living zone offer abundant space, natural light, and seamless access to the generously sized grassed backyard. Three well-sized bedrooms featuring in-built storage, all strategically located near the home's main bathroom ensure that the whole family is catered to. The master suite boasts a walk-in robe and ensuite, situated adjacent to the main living zone and providing al fresco access. Enhancing the overall living experience, the property features a double car remote access garage, ducted heating, and evaporative cooling. The location further adds to the appeal, with proximity to Selandra Rise Village, parks, walk tracks, and local schools. Currently leased until July 2024, this family home presents a fantastic opportunity for new home buyers or those looking to invest. Low-maintenance living is at your fingertips, and with every box ticked, 10 Mitta Mitta Street invites you to experience the perfect blend of comfort, style, and potential. Photo I.D. required at all inspections.
