Located in a quiet street, this room is two-bedroom home offers more than meets the eye. French doors from the veranda lead into a sunny north facing lounge room, complete with high ceilings and built-in bookcases. The main bedroom has its own walk-in robe, and the second bedroom has a built-in. The bathroom is neutral and modern, whilst the kitchen is second to none with extra storage and bench space. There is rear-yard access down the side of the property where there is a carport and large single lock-up garage with cement floor. A little bit of TLC is needed, perfect for the budget Buyer or Investor.
