

10 Tasman Street, Dee Why, NSW 2099

House For Sale

Tuesday, 25 June 2024

10 Tasman Street, Dee Why, NSW 2099

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Matt Brady
0452267906

Emily Read
0425301739

View by Appointment

An incredible ocean and headland vista sweeps up the coastline from this spectacular tri-level entertainer on Dee Why headland. Showcasing a North to rear aspect and a highly versatile layout that functions perfectly for multi-generational living, but with the option of being used as one substantial home, both levels are superbly-appointed with bright and spacious living zones, full kitchens and private outdoor entertaining areas. In addition, a luxurious master retreat with its own sitting area and perfect northerly aspect drinks in breathtaking views that encompass ocean and district. Its enviable lifestyle setting is on the doorstep of Dee Why's vibrant strip of beachfront eateries, a world-class surf break and scenic coastal walks.

- Tri-level entertainer positioned in a premium street on The Crown of North Curl Curl and Dee Why Headland
- Cherished and meticulously maintained by the same family for 40 years
- Incredible views that trace up the coastline beyond Longreef headland
- All levels feature bright and spacious open-plan living zones
- Living areas spill out to north-facing terraces, views from every level
- Ocean-facing terrace with sparkling pool and outdoor shower
- High-end contemporary kitchen plus drinks bar on middle level
- Full kitchen with gas cooking and breakfast bar on bottom level
- Sun-dappled backyard with open deck & pergola-covered patio
- Luxurious master retreat with sitting area, walk-in robe, en-suite
- Four additional bedrooms all appointed with built-in wardrobes
- Downstairs shower bathroom combines with laundry
- Lock-up garage with internal access, large workshop/storage room