Conveniently located within close proximity of Gosford Private Hospital, the CBD and transport links, this two-bedroom apartment is well-presented and offers the perfect home for owner occupiers, or an ideal investment opportunity. The solid complex was built in 2017 and this unit is positioned on the first floor. The open plan kitchen, dining and living area is light and bright, with a door leading out to the sunny balcony that is also accessible from the master bedroom. The kitchen has plenty of storage space and a gas cooktop, making entertaining a breeze. Both rooms have built-in robes, with the master also having an ensuite. The main bathroom has floor-to-ceiling tiles and a shower over the bath, and there is a discreet laundry cupboard. Secure underground parking is also provided for one car. The convenient location of this complex ensures it will suit those who want to enjoy all that Gosford provides, and those who commute. Email the agent for a detailed property eBook.
