Retreat To Francis Street

Nestled in the heart of Bairnsdale at 105 Francis Street, this charming three-bedroom, one-bathroom house is bursting with potential, presenting a splendid opportunity for first home buyers, savvy investors, and retirees seeking a serene lifestyle. The property sits on a generous 795 square metre block, offering ample space for outdoor activities and future expansions.

The residence exudes a quaint look reminiscent of yesteryear, eagerly awaiting a creative touch to rejuvenate and tailor it to one's personal preferences. Inside, you'll find a neat and tidy interior that promises a comfortable living experience from the outset.

Car enthusiasts or hobbyists will appreciate the convenience of a double garage in a separate 6.7m x 7m shed, alongside additional carport space. The large backyard is a delight, featuring a substantial greenhouse and potting shelter.

Seize the chance to make this inviting property your own, and craft the home of your dreams in a fantastic Bairnsdale location a 1km walk to the CBD, 700m to Chemist warehouse/APCO IGA & 600m to local bowls club.
