

11 Beaconsfield Terrace, The Range, Qld 4700

House For Sale

Sunday, 23 June 2024

11 Beaconsfield Terrace, The Range, Qld 4700

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 2547 m2

Type: House

Toby Molloy

Mark Molloy
0418792557

OFFERS OVER $1,000,000 INVITED

This extraordinary brick home is positioned on a 2547m² allotment accessed via a private driveway and positioned amongst some of The Range's finest homes and is like nothing else you will find on the market. Elevated with unobstructed views that will remain a permanent feature of this charming home. Classic in design with a traditional facade, wrought iron handrails, timber floors, and an impressive timber staircase. This home has space for the largest of families and Internally the lower level consists of 3 large living spaces including a lounge, formal dining and expansive family room all of which take in the spectacular views and access the front deck, the spacious kitchen is situated with seamless access to the large full-length entertaining courtyard at the rear. This level is also home to a 3rd bathroom, office and 2-car garage. Moving upstairs there are 4 generous bedrooms with the master suite being home to a spacious walk-in robe and ensuite complete with claw foot bath. The remaining 3 rooms are of good size and all access the upper deck with sweeping views and are serviced by the large main bathroom. Situated in a select pocket of The Range within an easy walk to Grammar schooling and Base Hospital and positioned on a large 2547m² with ample room to add a pool & shed and still retain yard space for the kids to play. This property is a rare offering with only a handful of properties with land of this size in this tightly held location. This property is for sale for the first time in decades and is without doubt one of the best offerings on The Range.