Coastal location, Cottage Charm

Showcasing the best of both worlds, this delightful Western Red Cedar character home - full of quaint cottage charm, boasts a superb popular Northern Beaches location.

Seldom are character builds and Palm fringed shores intertwined, and this stunning Trinity Beach abode is a testament to what a fabulous lifestyle mix this can offer!

With soaring raked ceilings – traditional casement windows, delightful french doors and a substantial cool & inviting undercover entertainment area, this family home is totally unique, charmingly picturesque and situated within walking distance to everyday modern conveniences including beachfront cafes and restaurants.

Nestled on an 800m² block, this property has been a green fingers delight for its current owner, complete with a FNQ mandatory mango tree, quaint Western Red Cedar garden shed, and offers a plethora of fenced space for pets or children to play.

With the front end of the home currently being utilised as a granny flat -the homes floor plan offers versatility in design and could suit a variety of living situations.
