Built in the days where quality was paramount, this delightful 1960's home has been meticulously cared for. Never been sold before, this home has had one fastidious owner only, that has ensured the condition is immaculate inside and out. With 4 good sized bedrooms, beautiful solid hardwood flooring, high ceilings and a spacious lounge/dining room, this home offers ample room for a large family. Located on the North side of Warragul within a minutes' walk to Warragul North Primary School and an easy walk to town. With fantastic views of the Strzelecki Ranges, a low maintenance garden with gorgeous established trees and a great undercover patio that faces North, this quality home stands out from the rest. - Gas ducted heating - Gas log fire - Sash windows - Loads of storage - Solid double garage - Double carport - Side access - Concrete driveway Call Grant or Natalie to arrange an inspection.
