Nestled beneath the mountain bluffs of the Great Western Tiers that are contained within the Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Site, in the quaint township of Cressy, you will discover the peaceful, easy life. This sun-filled home is perched perfectly on a double block of 1189m² (approx.) and surrounded by rich rural farmland. Cressy is known as the gateway to trout fishing paradise and is the mecca for fly fishing with accessible nearby creeks, rivers and a pleasant 90-minute drive to the Great Lake and the Central Plateau region. The home features 3 good-sized, light-filled bedrooms, formal lounge and dining rooms, fabulously functional kitchen and a beautifully renovated family bathroom and the bonus of a second shower for the busy morning rush. With ample space for self-sufficient veggie gardens, a workshop, home office, granny flat or even a tiny home for possibly Airbnb (STCA). Country living with historic town (Circa 1850) conveniences of an IGA X-press store, the ever-popular Rustic Bakehouse and the Cressy School is situated just along the road. Your peaceful, easy life awaits! Call Craig and Deb, the Spouses Selling Houses team, at Nest Property for your inspection of your new lifestyle now. _____ Disclaimer:
