Multi-Generational Family Haven In Prized Pocket

Welcome to this cleverly configured family home, where modern design meets versatile living.

Beyond its striking street appeal, it flows through a large foyer entry to an expansive two story floorplan. The main level culminates in an open-concept living area, perfect for both relaxing and entertaining, while a high-spec gas kitchen adjoins a well-equipped butlers' pantry. Continuing the space for family gatherings or hosting guests is a large alfresco terrace and level child-friendly lawn.

Adapting to serve the growing or multi-generational household, the residence features four deluxe bedrooms upstairs, plus a separate two bedroom flat at the rear appointed with a gas kitchen, bathroom and courtyard. The options here are superb to house in laws, guests or benefit from an additional income stream. Freestanding in a peaceful neighborhood, this wonderful property is only moments between. Westfield Hurstville, local parks, sought after schools and Carlton Station.
