Family home with unique flair!

Sitting perfectly with recently renovated interiors and offering an abundance of space and character is number 115 Leichhardt Street in Ruse. The home offers a complete makeover, including brand new flooring, fresh paint and much more perfect to move straight into and call it home.

The stunning split-level home offers four generous sized bedrooms with built ins and an ensuite to the master "New York styled" Loft bedroom. The home has ducted aircon and newly installed down lights throughout along with a timber staircase. The home has heaps of natural light flowing through with a feature garden in the centre of the home along with sky lights in the multiple living areas. The large living area has a gorgeous built-in bookshelf along with cathedral ceilings that provide a wow factor giving the home an ultra-modern and unique look that will impress all your family and friends.

The kitchen is amazing as it is large providing plenty of bench space with gas cooking and modern appliances along with a great façade.

It gets better, there is a giant deck and outdoor entertainment area along with plenty of yard space, perfect for any homeowner who loves to entertain as it provides plenty of space along with amazing views of peace and tranquillity.

Sitting in the heart of the well sought-after Suburb of Ruse, and walking distance to Ruse Public School, moments from childcare centres, bus stops and shopping centres, this home ticks the boxes for any family and is not to be missed.
