This home is perfect for the retiring downsizer who does not just want to sit on the lounge watching Days Of Our Lives. It has something to keep you interested from the front to the back. Starting at the front you have an elevated wide under roof patio which looks to the East from where you can watch the sunrise over the cane fields or enjoy a quiet one of an evening. Once you go inside you have three good bedrooms and a very large kitchen dining and open plan lounge room space which has new air conditioning. All bedrooms are more than generous in size. Out the back, you have a large outdoor undercover patio which is a cool place to enjoy a BBQ and a chin wag in the shade. Beside here is the very large shed which has power and is the perfect place for the budding inventor or hobbyist to disappear into. Out the back are established veggie beds and an old chook enclosure. The house recently had a fresh coat of paint and the established tropical gardens keep it cool and attractive in all seasons. With no neighbour at the front or the back, you have unspoiled rural outlooks. This will be the most peaceful place to retire, you can become semi-self-sufficient and just relax and enjoy your days.
