Situated in a quiet pocket of Thornton, this expansive home offers comfort and convenience that will appeal to families, retirees and professional couples alike. Featuring a flowing design with generously appointed living areas, the home has been built with the entertainer in mind. An open-plan living and dining zone is here to entertain your guests along with a spacious kitchen with ample storage and bench space complete with stainless steel appliances. Glass sliding doors lead out onto your back covered alfresco which overlooks the fully-fenced backyard where the kids can relax and play outdoors. Four well-sized bedrooms, the master with his & hers built-in robes and private ensuite, are joined by a bright all-in-one main bathroom and an internal laundry that flows out through to the alfresco area. Situated a short drive to Thornton Shopping Centre, train station & Public School, 6 minutes to the new Maitland Hospital and 8 minutes to Stockland Greenhills, this is one home you will love coming home to!
