Quiet privacy in rainforest-like setting

Nestled at the end of a tranquil cul-de-sac and with a concept-crafted design by architect Garry Lewin, this superb home blends into a lush leafy paradise providing a haven of peace and seclusion in a native bushland pocket. The home is orientated to maximise seasonal exposures to northern light and features flexible options for family living including a poolside studio or creative retreat. Adjoining a green corridor with tree filtered golf course views, the location is blissfully serene yet only 10mins walk from Lane Cove's village centre.
