BE PART OF HISTORY

This historic Murtoa home is set at the north end of the main street and for many years was the towns Police residence, station and jail. Still retaining its authentic period charm this home is a stunning show piece of the town. The home features a magnificent formal entry, 3 double bedroom all with open fire places, separate lounge with a wood fire insert and a split system, renovated bathroom, original polished floor boards and a timber kitchen with a dish washer, electric cook top and under bench oven. Outside there is a paved outdoor entertaining area covered by a shade sail, 2nd toilet, laundry, the old jail cell. 2 carports, stables and the former Police station which is now a bungalow but with some imagination could be a self contained studio apartment.
