Experience the quintessence of coastal living at 121 Brickwharf, a stunning waterfront reserve abode in Woy Woy, NSW. Perfectly tailored for professional couples seeking an idyllic lifestyle, this beautifully renovated property boasts modernity and sophistication. This exquisite house, which underwent a comprehensive transformation just 12 months ago, presents an elegant array of top-of-the-line appliances, seamlessly blending luxury with practicality. With three plush bedrooms and two and a half chic bathrooms, the residence caters to both comfort and style. The convenience of proximity to the bustling town centre and a selection of local shops means all amenities are within easy reach, adding to the allure of this exceptional home. Additionally, extensive parking is no issue with five spaces available, including huge garages catering to a range of vehicles or storage needs. Indulge in serene views and the tranquil atmosphere from your own slice of paradise, making 121 Brick wharf the perfect place to unwind and relish in sophisticated waterside living.
