KING OF THE HILL

With arguably the best outlook in 4172, 123 Ives Street is in a league of its own after undergoing a complete makeover, leaving no stone unturned. Originally built in 1970, this stunning home has been meticulously renovated by the current owners, ensuring it will impress from the moment you step through the front door.

Atop one of the suburb's highest points, this showstopper sits beautifully on its prized 607sqm elevated parcel, capturing a rich tapestry of Brisbane with epic panoramas that sweep across the leafy peaks of Murarrie and Cannon Hill; and looking out onto Mt Gravatt lookout.

Upon entering, you are greeted with a traditional entry foyer so ascend the stairs to the hub of the household. The owners have nailed the highly sought after "Queenslander Dream" with thoughtful design integrating the indoor and outdoor living. The expansive double back deck, covering a total of 84 sqm* (42 sqm* each), forms the heart of the home, offering five-star entertaining and breathtaking views.
