Meticulously designed, solidly built and superbly maintained, this timeless mid-century residence is a fabulous family oasis with a north-facing rear garden in a quiet street. A treelined location central to all of Northcote, Thornbury and Fairfield's outstanding amenities brings this attractive 3 bedroom home with its functional layout, period flair and prized garden surroundings firmly into focus for a discerning family looking to the future. Nestled on a large light-capturing 900 sq. metre allotment (approx.), a picture-perfect profile reflects the flawless presentation and excellent proportions of a light-filled, single-level interior flowing with absolute ease to a secure, secluded and sun-drenched rear garden dotted with fruit trees, a vegetable patch and an alfresco patio embraced by greenery. A comfortable floorplan and classic style combine in an immaculate setting offering 3 big bedrooms (2 with built-in robes) a family-size central bathroom and a spacious living room. Further is a generous dining room and a neat well-appointed kitchen and meals area before a huge laundry and a relaxing sunroom. The home also includes ducted heating, evaporative cooling, ceiling fans, security window shutters, an external powder room, garden shed, rainwater tank and 2-car lock-up garage with storage. Instantly inviting and inspiring as there's potential to update and expand if desired just moments to the endless café, restaurant and shopping options on High Street, Fairfield Village, the new Northcote Aquatic & Recreation Centre, parkland, trams, buses, 2 train lines and schools including Wales Street Primary.
