Exquisitely combining 1930's elegance and consummate contemporary comfort, this immaculately renovated and extended Dalkeith residence has been thoroughly and sympathetically enhanced to create a memorable family environment with a sprawling, adaptable floorplan and large family living spaces. Introduced by landscaped gardens, its stylish interiors are highlighted by period detailed ceilings and solid timber flooring, revealing magnificent formal rooms with an open fireplace, a beautiful bay window and French doors to a return verandah. An expansive informal living and dining domain is positioned at the rear and served by a striking double island stone kitchen boasting a quality integrated appliances. Five beautiful bedrooms include two master bedrooms of equal size and appointment, both with exceptional wardrobe space and luxury ensuite's as well as three children's bedrooms, or two and a playroom. A premier tree-lined Waratah Avenue is the ideal setting, just moments from Christ Church and MLC, University of WA, Claremont Quarter and the Swan River.
