New To Market

Designed to inspire, this unique home offers up an amazing blend of reoccurring natural rock and timber within its solid construction designed to bring out the uniqueness of your own personal taste. A mix of modern renovation and old-world charm allude to a truly inspiring lifestyle opportunity. From the beautiful rock water course as you enter the home to the exposed raked timber high ceilings and beautiful timber tops to the natural rock formations, once you step inside you will instantly know you have fallen in love with this stunning abode. Set on almost 1 acre of private and usable corner block, the land allows for some self-sustainability options with fresh fruit and veg and the opportunity for a small permaculture garden. There is plenty of hard standing and drive-through vehicle access for boats, trucks, caravans, and trailers with the four-bay shed and carport with separate entry completing your extra storage or home-based business opportunities. The location will need no endorsement being merely minutes back to Caboolture Central where you'll find all of your shopping and entertainment needs along with easy access to the train station and under 45 minutes to Brisbane. There is no better central Southeast Queensland location than this. The team at Grace Estate Agency would love to welcome you home to this amazing lifestyle opportunity, come and inspect today before this little piece of paradise is gone forever.
