Proud Mary

Proudly standing at the top of Mary Street, this solid brick, 1988 built home has so much to offer no matter what stage of life you may be in. The sheer scale of this place will be enough to get you excited and imagining the life you will lead once you walk in and make yourselves at home. The true heart of this home is the expansive living areas, ideal for both intimate gatherings and grand celebrations flowing effortlessly from one space to another. The designated dining area is perfect for family meals and entertaining guests, with the kitchen boasting dual ovens and the large lounge invites you to unwind by the elegant electric log fire. If you prefer, there's an option to add a fixed gas fire for that extra touch of warmth and ambiance. There is a second living area to allow for family members to have their own space. The main bathroom has been beautifully renovated, featuring a luxurious bath and a separate walk-in shower. Additionally, a separate laundry room adds to the home's functionality, making chores a breeze. This property offers a fully lined separate garage, already fitted with pool table lights, presenting endless possibilities. Whether you envision it as a lively game room, an extra living space, or a workshop, this area adapts to your needs. The flat, generous yard is a dream come true for families. It's a safe, open space where children can play freely and pets can roam joyfully. Imagine summer afternoons spent hosting barbecues, gardening, or simply basking in the sun and there is even a retractable shade sail for those hot afternoons.
