Well-sized family home in peaceful location.

On a spectacular elevated but usable half-acre plus block and the last in a no through road, this wonderful two-level family home offers uninterrupted, captivating views stretching across Melbourne to Mt. Macedon that is sure to stun every visitor.

Your family will thrive in the peace and privacy provided by living on the edge of the Dandenong Ranges National Park with superb walking tracks at your door, and also enjoy the convenience of being only a short drive to all the amenities of Upper Ferntree Gully and Upwey (train stations and shops) and only minutes from Ferny Creek Primary School.

Soaring timber ceilings above the huge open plan living areas and renovated kitchen that are complemented by slate and polished floors, create a dramatic space from which to take in the views; and generate a natural warmth that is supplemented by the Coonara-type wood burner and gas ducted heating. Two timber decks off both levels provide great outdoor entertaining space for all of your family and guests, serviced by 3 generous bedrooms and a large family bathroom alongside a modern main bathroom with high quality finishes.

Outdoor features include garden shed, water tank for the garden, ample off street parking, circular driveway, and large grassed area where wallabies, deer and echidnas are frequently seen; with the rich and varied bird life only adding to the appeal.

All aspects of the architecture and finish of this light filled home have a stamp of style and quality, and it is superbly positioned to take full advantage of its magnificent surroundings.

Come, inspect and be prepared to be mesmerized by this very special property.
