Charming Country Living in the Heart of Westbury

Nestled in the charming and bustling town of Westbury, just a short 25 minute drive from Launceston, 13 Franklin Street offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers or savvy investors. This well-maintained weatherboard home features two generous bedrooms, a large living space perfect for relaxing, and an open-plan kitchen and dining area. While the kitchen retains its original charm, it is highly functional, making it easy to cook and entertain. A cosy wood fire warms the home, complementing the neutral colour palette that flows throughout.

Step outside to discover a large deck, beautifully manicured gardens and lush, well-maintained lawns, providing a tranquil outdoor space to enjoy. The property also offers a single garage with convenient internal access, as well as a single carport for additional parking. Situated on a flat, spacious 836m² block, this home is just steps away from the local bowls club, offering a sense of community right at your doorstep. Whether you're looking for a peaceful retreat or a smart investment, 13 Franklin Street in thriving Westbury delivers comfort, convenience, and charm in equal measure.
