This privately built block house is as solid as they come .It is extra large in size and has a spacious lounge that opens out on to the front verandah and a separate dining / kitchen that opens out on to the back verandah. Great family living and heaps of room to entertain visitors or family life3 large bedrooms and a large family bathroom with a separate laundry finish the picture nicely .Front and back verandasThe interior has just been freshly painted and the front fence and gate is being replaced.Fully fenced with a double carport to the front Currently rented at $560 per week till April 2025 it represents an ideal investment or a first home for the astute investor.Well worth having a look out as houses this size do not come to the market very often.Viewing is by private appointment but give me a call.... you won't be disappointed ..
