This four bedroom home is more than meets the eye. As you venture through the front door you will be met with a huge Lounge room at the front of the premises, which is open plan and meets the well laid out kitchen. The Kitchen offers gas cooking and a dishwasher. The main bedroom features a walk in robe and ensuite, and the remaining three bedrooms include built in robes. There is a main bathroom in the back hall which includes a shower with separate bath and a large laundry nearby. Outside you will find a large fully fenced backyard which is featured with a over sized undercover deck. Other features to this property include ducted heating, evaporative cooling, fenced backyard, double remote garage with rear roller door access, a garden shed plus a 6 x 3m lined colourbond shed. Located only minutes to St Angela of the Cross Primary school and Warragul North Primary, Sheoak Street Park, Early learning centre and health services, this home is in the perfect position!
