There are modern and there are character homes...this lovely two-storey home in Flagstaff Hill has the pleasure of offering you both a modern style with lots of character. Downstairs is excellent open plan living with a new kitchen plus a large master bedroom with ensuite and a fourth bedroom/study. Upstairs are two further double bedrooms, a new bathroom, and a spacious family room for all to enjoy. If you are a first homebuyer, young or established family or someone looking for modern comfort in a great location, your search is over. What you'll love about this home: Downstairs • Open plan living with quality tiled floors, lots of natural light and plenty of room to relax. • New kitchen with top notch appliances and large bench top for the chef in all of us. • The kitchen has an attached meals area with lots of room to entertain and showing off new character plantation shutters. • The front decked, year-round, entertainment area is large and inviting and if you are eager to entertain family and friends, this is the space to do it. • A large master bedroom with ensuite, new carpets and BIR's. • A separate fourth bedroom/study to help you work from home or to create a great place for the kids to study. Upstairs • A spacious family room which teenagers will love to call their own. • Two further double bedrooms with new carpets and BIR's. • A luxurious main bathroom with deep bath and roomy shower. Additional • Zoned ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning throughout. • New solar panels to help with those rising electricity costs. • A two car lock up garage. • A flat block on a quiet street in a great location close to schools, shops, and transport. This really is a terrific home offering so much to that one lucky buyer. Modern homes with character are a rare find so be quick as this won't last long.
