Serenity in Skye

Refined Eastern warmly welcomes you to 14 Bishop Street, Skye, where nature's serenity meets the convenience of city living. Nestled in a secluded pocket beyond the renowned Penfolds Magill Estate, this 4-bedroom family home offers a soul-soothing retreat. Imagine a life immersed in stunning views of the Adelaide hills and glittering city lights, where peace and quiet abound. Just over 15 minutes from the heart of the city, you can effortlessly switch off from the day's stresses. Welcome home.

As you approach, the home greets you with a fantastic wide frontage and a driveway that can accommodate a family of cars in addition to the double garage. Grand French doors at the entrance set the scene for what lies within. Step inside, and to your left, you are welcomed into the main living room that seamlessly flows into the kitchen and dining areas.

The expansive family room, offering versatility and space to meet your ever-changing lifestyle needs, lies just beyond. Whether it becomes a cinema room, a playroom, a fifth bedroom, or a games retreat, the possibilities are endless. This space has hosted many fun nights with family and friends, especially when you open the glass sliding door and step out to the large undercover entertaining area, where you are greeted by lush, picturesque greenery.

To the right of the entrance, you will find another versatile living space perfect for a home office. The kitchen, the heart of the home, boasts an abundance of cabinetry and bench space, providing a great functional flow to the rest of the house. During the golden hour, the easterly hills dazzle in rich tones of oranges and yellows, making cooking dinner a true delight. The ground level also features a full bathroom, perfect for guests and handy for a busy family.

As you ascend to the second level, you'll find all four bedrooms. The master suite is a true retreat, featuring a large walk-in robe and a stunning updated ensuite with double vanities. Imagine waking up on a Sunday morning, sipping your coffee, and relaxing with stunning views over the lush green Adelaide hills. The second level also houses three more comforting bedrooms, all with built-in robes, two of which are generously spacious. The main bathroom is easily accessible, offering both a shower and a large bathtub with double vanities.

Your true bliss awaits when you step outside and take a breath of fresh air. The approximately 2,828m<sup>2</sup> allotment offers an expansive rear yard for children and pets to roam freely and includes a pool to make incredible use of this coming summer. Not one, but two undercover entertaining pergolas add to the outdoor charm, with one allowing for drive-through access from the garage.
