This quaint country cottage is located on picturesque Fountaindale Road, within short walking distance of the many cafes and boutiques in the Robertson town centre. The property features two good sized bedrooms, a tidy bathroom, large kitchen with separate dining area and a comfortable lounge area with brand new wood burning fireplace. Situated on a large block, the home features two outdoor decks to enjoy views of idyllic rainforest. Perfect for a couple or small family, who would like to enjoy all that the Southern Highlands has to offer.
